DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

Claims 1, 3-13 and 15-33 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Redford (US 5,031,982).

In regards to claims 1, 13, 22 and 23, Redford discloses a payout tube 34 comprising a elongated conduit with a flexible portion, see Figures 5-8.

In regards to claims 4, 5, 15 and 16, the flexible tube can bend in the range of 1 to 120 degrees, and 5 to 90 degrees.

In regards to claims 7, 11, 18 and 20, the flexible portion is made up of slots and corrugations.

In regards to claim 9, the slots are circular around the tube.

With respect to claims 24-33, the method described in these claims would inherently result from the use of the flexible payout duct of Redford as advanced above.

Response to Arguments

Applicant's arguments filed 09 May 2005 have been fully considered but they are not persuasive. The limitation that the flexible payout tube is designed to be placed in an interior of the container is merely intended use and does not further structurally limit the payout tube.

Conclusion

THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.
